

The Frankfort Roundabout

Entered at the postoffice at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class mailable matter.

GEO. A. LEWIS, Editor and Pub.

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 21, 1898.

(For the roundabout) The Return of Prosperity.

Thanksgiving and the return of prosperity. Victory and peace, in 1898, means more than for many years past. The harvest home has never recognized larger crops, on the whole, in this country, and general prosperity is attested by the largest volume of business ever recorded. The people's verdict has given reason to hope that the soundness of the currency and the nation's honor will not again be in peril, and a war, not matched in history for swiftness of success, with smallness of loss, has brought more perfect union than ever between North and South, and closer bonds than ever with our kin beyond the sea. Ending with the most important increase of territory ever before.

The year, an exceptional in magnitude and variety of blessing, draws near its close with yet another good gift, a marked increase of confidence in prospects for the year which is to close the century.

Industries are doing remarkably well, considering all hindrances. Of course the soundness of currency has something to do with this steady increase. The great flow of gold coming from abroad to the United States, within the last year, shows how confidence has been restored. It is a fallacy to suppose that a demand for gold creates a demand for silver, but a perfect and unperishable standard means an increase in prices and a demand for our labor and products.

This, together with an abundant crop, and all other blessings, should call forth our thanks. Our western farmers have had, for the past two years, a demonstration of the fallacy that legislation alone can make money plenty. There may be an abundance of money; but it may be lying idle in banks, while there is a scarcity in the pockets of the masses of individuals. There is no way in which law can operate to change the ownership of this money so that it will be distributed to empty purses. So the individual can get money honestly only by selling something he possesses for which there is a demand. This may be his labor, or the products of his toil, or the surplus of his crops. It has been thoroughly demonstrated that neither free silver, nor any law which it is possible to frame, could have given abundant money at low interest. So when we have thoroughly considered all points and questions in connection with the past issue of 1898, we find bimetallism an impossibility and a failure. While, upon the other hand, we find a gold basis to life and prosperity to every industry and interest of the people, as well as to the interest and welfare of the government at large. This, with all other convictions and realities, revealed to the eyes of the people, should be enough to show them their plain duty toward those who would ride into office on their prejudices.

Of the past issue the past should be buried and a more prosperous theme selected for a basis to build upon. The positions gained, on purer and firmer basis, afford an honor well worth aspiring for. The world never knew grander victories gained by the force of arms than was achieved by the noble sons of this nation at Santiago, Manila, and the Philippines. The past was forgotten, the gray and the blue marched shoulder to shoulder. They followed the same flag across ditches, over barbed fences, up the hill, to victory, after the same music. All honor to their names. May their memory be kept sacred through the countless ages to come.

THE GREAT MAJESTIC.

THE GREAT MAJESTIC.

For doing prompt and thorough cooking and quick water heating it has no rival. It is made to last a life-time. Does quicker work with one-half the fuel than any other stove or range. Don't take chances on any of the numerous cheap imitations made by the cast-iron stove trade. The Great Majestic is now sold in every State in the Union.

Another Spanish Riot.

On Saturday night the citizens of one of the suburbs of Havana, thinking the Spanish evacuation of that part of the city was complete, raised the stars and stripes, shot off fireworks, and otherwise celebrated. Some Spanish soldiers, seeing the way things were, opened fire on the people, and succeeded in wounding and killing several. Among the wounded was a soldier belonging to an Illinois regiment, who was passing along in the line of his duty.

As usual, when called to account by Gen. Lee, the Spanish General lied out of it and asserted that he saw no Spanish soldiers there. An investigation was at once ordered.

The people are praying for the day to come when American authority will be fully recognized all over Cuba.

Stoves and Vestibules.

The street car company in Lexington has had vestibules put on its cars to protect its motormen from the weather, and has also had stoves put into the cars to add to the comfort of patrons. This is a good move and ought to be adopted in all cities having street car lines.

It is the universal rule in the western cities, commencing with St. Louis, Mo.

The Kind You Have Always Bought
Beware of cheap imitations.
Up to Date.

Our friend, Loving W. Gaines, of the Elkhorn Progress, issued a bang up edition of his paper this week. It consisted of 24 pages of 5 columns each and was chock full of good things in a literary way as well as an abundance of advertisements.

Brother Gaines deserves great credit for his energy and enterprise. We congratulate him.

Mr. Hardin Norris, clerk of the drug store of R. Shoemaker, Perry, Ill., says "A man came into our store the other day and said, 'I want a bottle of that stuff that saves children's lives. I read in the news about it. The children may get sick when we can not get the doctor quick enough. It's the medicine you sell for croup.' He alluded to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and bought a bottle before he left the store. For sale by J. W. Gayle.

"Hold Your Tobacco."

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Kentucky Tobacco League held at Lexington, Saturday the following address to the tobacco growers and working men was adopted and ordered spread broadcast throughout the State:

"Owners of tobacco leaf, do you remember this advice given to the wheat producers a year ago: 'Hold your wheat?' Did the farmers of Kentucky hold? Not one in twenty. But the one who held realized that he was master of the situation. The conditions that obtained then in wheat repeats itself in tobacco. The manufacturers both of the Old World and the New have almost exhausted their supply. They must have our tobacco. They have almost agreed as in the case of wheat, to take it at a low price, and when they have it in plug the old cry will come: 'Short crops, light weights, high prices for their product.'"

Low price to the farmer, high price to the consumer. The trust is not the whole market yet, and the Continental Tobacco Trust would not be worth a continental, even with its boasted security of two million dollars, if we will stand, shoulder to shoulder, and ask the labor organizations, and we do ask them now, to stand by us as fellow-laborers. Help us, ye fellow-workers, to fight this powerful trust that is threatening our bread. We said the trust is not the whole market. It is not half the market, as yet, and it is for you to say if it shall be. There are hundreds of other manufacturers that this big moneyed power is seeking to destroy. They will be assuaged one by one, the big ones first, the little ones in turn, until the whole market is the trust. Then good-bye hope. The price of tobacco will be set by the one-man power, and there will be no appeal. Hold your tobacco! You know what your crop has cost you. Aid to this a fair compensation for your labor and capital invested, and refuse to sell for less. Buy your tobacco for chewing and smoking from your friends. Is the trust your friend? Help us, all farmers, ye who labor unceasingly amid summer heat and winter cold, and we will help you when your war is inaugurated against the Cattle Trust, the Wheat Combine, the Twine Trust—the trust, in whatever way it shows itself.

You do not have to fight a trust; resolve you will buy products made only by your friends, and there will be no trust.

We appeal to you merchants, to help us by handling only tobacco made by the factories not in the trust. We appeal to you to stand by us with your sympathy and kind words, and aid us in a fight in a common cause. W. B. HAWKINS, President Tobacco Growers' League of Kentucky.

THE ANNUAL TOAST

To the Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of the United States.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE GRAND ENCAMPMENT OF KENTUCKY, LOUISVILLE, KY., Nov. 30, 1898.

GENERAL ORDER, NO. 2.

1. A custom that has been sanctioned by the highest Templar authority in the United States, is this: On Christmas day Sir Knights, as individuals or commanderies, assemble at precisely high noon—Washington time—a sentiment is offered to the Grand Master of Templars, and his response is given by some one selected for that purpose. The attention being that, at as nearly the same instant as possible, Sir Knights of every part of our country, though widely separated, will "participate" in a sentiment of loyalty and love to the head of our order; to which he will give response in recognition of it. Appropriate ceremonies or entertainment may precede or follow (or both) these toasts.

2. Sir Knights of Kentucky are therefore authorized to assemble in their respective assemblages (with visiting brothers, of course) on December 26, 1898 (Christmas coming on Sunday), and at 11 o'clock a. m.—equivalent to 12 m., Eastern time—to unite in the special Christmas exercises.

3. This sentiment has been prepared for the coming Christmas anniversary:

"To the Most Eminent Grand Master, Reuben Hedley Lloyd, who rules the Templar Host from Point Barrow to Porto Rico; from the Panamasquoddy to the Philippines."

4. The Grand Master's response will be:

"A 'Host' whose armor is Truth, whose watchword is Brotherly Love, whose mission is Peace, whose purpose is moral and intellectual development, must in time capture the world."

By order of R. E. Grand Commander, Sir Charles Christopher H. B. GRANT, Grand Recorder.

Xmas gift to one and all. Not many to report on the sick list this time.

Mr. Pierce Stivers, who has been very ill with pneumonia for several days past, is better at this writing.

Mrs. Sarah Moore was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Watkins, of Flag Fork, last week.

Mrs. Julia Conquest and daughter, Miss Della, and Mrs. Becca Conquest and daughter, Miss Lilla, all of Louisville, who have been the guests of Mrs. Binta Cook for several days, returned to their home the past week.

Mr. J. C. Moore was the loser of a valuable horse last week. He fed the horse as usual at night. On going to the barn the next morning found him dead.

The party at Mrs. Binta Cook's, Tuesday night of last week, given in honor of her relatives from Louisville, who have been her guests for some days past, was a grand success, largely attended and also honored by the presence of the Bailey Mill string band, who always amply reward their audiences with such good music.

Mrs. J. C. Deakins and son, Joe, of near Shelbyville, were the guests of her parents, Mr. J. C. Moore and wife, of Scrabble, Saturday and Sunday last.

Mr. Charles Samples and Mr. George Montgomery, merchants of this town, will have a Xmas tree at this place on Monday night after Xmas. Every one invited and will receive prompt attention.

Mr. Riley, of Harvilland, was the guest of Mr. C. W. Perkins Monday night.

We are glad to welcome Uncle Boud back to our community after a long absence. Had had merry ones, if you want to hear some nice music pay strict attention, for Uncle Boud is going to play some lively and grand. Listen, don't you hear him roasting the bow.

Well! Well! Catch'em, guess that hog had a wonderful long tail and nose. Tell us when the stumps gets done rendering it up. We are anxious to learn how much grease it yielded.

Mr. J. P. and Mr. Timothy are very lonely since you deserted them.

Mr. Morris Wilburn moved to his father's, Mr. I. N. Wilburn's, last week.

Mr. Samuel Hazlett moved to the house he occupied.

Business lively. Every one preparing for Xmas.

Miss May Roberts, of Fair View, was the guest of Mrs. Wilson Moore, her sister, one day the last week.

Mr. Timothy Poole and Mr. Lee Pulliam were in town Tuesday on business. CLARK OBSERVER.

Forks of Elk Horn.

Christmas eve gift to you all.

Misses Adeline Jameson and Florence Easley were the charming guests of Miss Daisy Hockensmith last week.

Mrs. Barry South has returned home from an extended visit to friends in Louisville.

Mr. Bob Jones, of the Second Arkansas Regiment, has been on furlough of two weeks, near our village.

Miss Lillith Spicer spent part of last week with Miss Carrie Brock, Crescent View.

Mr. D. Morris Brock has come home for Christmas holiday, and brought with him a friend, Mr. T. A. Nichols, of Lexington. They anticipate a fine time.

Quite a crowd from here attended the box party at Switzer last week.

Mrs. Clarence Boser and children are the guests of Miss Ella Brady.

We were all saddened by the death of Miss Lilla Crane, our beloved friend. She died of that dread disease consumption. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved mother, father, sister and brother, who are left to mourn her loss, besides a host of friends.

Be still, and know that: I am God; I give, and then I take;

And those who trust in me alone,

I will love and not forsake.

Then wipe away your burning tears,

And kiss the chastening rod and

With a patient loving heart,

Be still and know that: I am God!"

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it?

Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?

If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

In view of the fact that our Y. M. C. A. work is not self-supporting, but is maintained through the generosity of the good people of Frankfort, it will not be considered out of place at this season of the year, when the old time custom of distributing gifts is so generally followed, to suggest through these columns, some of the present needs of the Association. First of all cash contributions are needed and all gifts of this character, whether small or large, will be gratefully appreciated. Standard books for the library, suitable pictures and bric-a-brac will always prove acceptable. A copy of Webster's unabridged dictionary (latest edition), and standard authors are considered a necessary and valuable part of the equipment in every association, but in the local rooms they are missing and greatly missed. New members are also desired, and if you have a son, brother or friend—or you know of some worthy young man, who is not connected with the local Y. M. C. A., why not give to him a useful Christmas present in the form of a membership ticket which would entitle him to the many privileges of this worthy institution for an entire year. There are many young men in Frankfort, ready to pay their own membership fee, who would appreciate highly such a valuable gift. Among the KODNABOY's readers there are certainly some interested friends who will be glad to assist the Association along the lines indicated above.

A Christmas service of song will be conducted in the Association's parlors Sunday at 3:30 p. m. Several local musicians who participated in the Praise Service, which was so thoroughly enjoyed a few weeks ago, have kindly promised to sing again on this occasion. This means a delightful program. Remember that all young men—and old men too—are invited.

Two most excellent addresses have been recently delivered at the Sunday afternoon service for men. On the 11th inst. Rev. Dr. John K. Mason, of Louisville, gave an inspiring address on the theme, "Be Strong," and last Sunday an interesting and practical talk on "Character Building" illustrated by a carefully arranged chart, was given by Rev. E. R. Clark, of Detroit, Michigan, who is stopping in the city. The latter service was introduced by Mr. Frank Bull, who by request, rendered a pleasing solo.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. Congress are looking forward, with pleasant anticipation, to the second meeting of the organization which will occur on Friday next, 30th inst. at 7:30 p. m. New members will be admitted and two or three important measures will be debated.

That Throbbing Headache.

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. Ben Hur.

The entertainment for the benefit of the Episcopal Church, held in the Chapel, on Tuesday night, in which views of the famous story "Ben Hur" were given, together with a lecture by Capt. J. A. Rider, was a decided hit. Every one present was delighted, both with the pictures and the lecture.

Owing to the fact that Christmas shopping, three auctions and other attractions were in progress, the attendance was not so large as the great merit of the entertainment warranted.

Weather very changeable.

Oh what a fine time we all had at the box party last week. Amount made $18.20.

Misses Kate and Mary Haydon, of Peaks Mill, were in our neighborhood last week and were accompanied home by Messrs. Hunter Switzer and Will Green.

The old bridge across Elkhorn is being repaired by Messrs. Semones & Co., of Stoney Creek. They say when they get through they will have money to loan. If any one has any replying to do call on Mr. Semones, as he is first class.

Mr. Ira Adkins, of Illinois, is the guest of Mr. Richard McConnell.

We are glad to state that Mr. E. R. Jones is improving.

Miss Ada Wingate visited her sister at Thorn Hill Saturday and Sunday last.

Miss Beatrice Duval, of Stamping Ground, is at Mrs. Dr. Dawson's.

Mr. Clarence Baker and friend, of Frankfort, were at Switzer visiting Mrs. Dud Baker.

SWITZERIE.

Pea Ridge.

School closed last Friday. Miss Eliza Spaulding, our efficient teacher, arranged a very nice program for the last day—songs, speeches, distribution of prizes—besides a nice treat of candy for the pupils. Quite a number of patrons were present.

Miss Ida Sanford is visiting this week at Mrs. Pete Quire's, on Flat Creek.

Concerning the primary election, the opinion seems to prevail here that, as Mr. Trimble has represented our county once, he has had all the honor our people could bestow. Another term would not increase it, so now he should follow the example of Violett, Scott, Cox and others—serve one term and give some other citizen a chance.

Miss Emma Dennis and Miss Edith Edge were the fortunate winners of the prizes at the close of the Pea Ridge school.

Mr. John Wood finished stripping tobacco this week.

Our venerable Sage says: "Don't give up a single inch of territory that our brave boys have captured. If those two Spanish fleets that our gallant navy smashed, had landed on our coast, they would have learned us something about titles. No nation on earth has a better title to their territory than we have to the Philippines—courage to capture and ability to hold."

Mr. A. Clipper and wife gave a most enjoyable party at their home recently. The music furnished was very good and it was enjoyed by all those who had the honor of an invitation.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allison, of Lebanon Ridge, visited the Ridge this week.

A certain citizen, who had been recently employed making some repairs in the penitentiary, was given a prisoner to attend and assist him, whose record was, "colored, Lexington, burglary, three years." Being in Lexington this week talking to a number of friends, a colored man came up and claimed acquaintance with him and shook hands, but the Frankfort citizen could not remember seeing him before, and said so. After a number of guesses the colored man said, "Why, Mr. —, don't you remember when me and you was in the penitentiary together?"

After some guffing, in which the Governor was censured for releasing him, the Frankfort citizen, in some confusion, said, "I do remember you now, Charlie. It was the prison uniform that disguised you," to which the colored man said, "I knowed you all the time, whether you had on the old convict uniform or not."

Since his return to Frankfort he has been busy explaining and answering the question, "Don't you remember when me and you was in the penitentiary together?"

According to the changes of the weather, our people are hunting, hog killing, or tobacco stripping.

One of our most prominent merchants of Bagdad, (A. A. Bailey), is discussing the proposition of running for the Lower House of the next General Assembly. Auericus is a Free Silver Democrat and is tetch and too nalls for Blackburn for Senator.

Mr. Hyrth Montfort, who has been drumming for a Louisville firm for a number of years, thinks of making the race for Magistrate in the Jacksonville, Bagdad, Croppers and Christiansburg precincts. Mr. Montfort is a man of ability, a sound, good Democrat, and we believe, if elected, will fill the position to the general satisfaction of the people.

Mr. Tate Duncan says that he is opposed to dogs in general. That a man may own one and suffer him to lie under the bed and dig off his fleas, will bark when there nothing to bark at, will rear upon you and muddy your best clothes, and three weeks before he dies, he will come up with hydrophobia and bite his owner and both fill an untimely grave. You are just right, Tate, my dog is for sale.

On last Tuesday night, the air being somewhat chilly, the roads frozen, and slick, our friend, Mr. Newton Miles, and his girl attended a social beyond Jacksonville, in a region of country known as Arkansas. On his return home, in aiming to ascend a hill, the horse was so slick shod that he couldn't pull the buggy. Newton was forced to get out and push. So the horse pulling, the girl whipping, and Newton pushing they managed to get to the top. Newton landed home at three o'clock next morning and said he thought he would have his horse roached before he attended another social.

"We've jest pulled through a little scrap, wher'in we tuk occasion
To bury all onpleasanties, as we licked a furrin' nation;
So, in Manly and Santygary, while roared the battle blast,
Yankee Doodle and Dixie dug a grave,
an' in it laid the Past,"—

Says McKinley at Atlanta.

"We need no more geogryfries, nor plums o' compass, nuther,
With all our people, North an' South, a-lovin' uv each other;
One heart, one home, an' one flag a-wavin' o'er us;
The Lord has jined the partnership, and our prospects is glorious,"—

Says McKinley at Atlanta.

"Henceforth, your dead, your sacred dead, that fell in the fateful sixties,
Shall be the kear uv all the land—an' not alone of Dixie's;
An' all the blue, an' all the gray, who, in those dark days did perish,
Are now the nation's sainted heroes,
whom our common love shall cherish."

Clothing, Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Caps, Ladies' and Gents' Furnishing Goods, Trunks Valises Ladies Cloaks and Capes in Good Assortment. Also a Large assortment of Xmas Novelties and Toys.

As my room must be vacated by JANUARY 1ST, or about that time, and in order to do so I have made up my mind to sell everything in the house if low prices will move them. Never in your life did you buy goods as cheap as you can buy them at the present time. My stock is very large and must positively be sold, and in order to get rid of them I have made the prices to suit the people and the hard times.

I will not quote any prices, but to convince you that I mean just what I say, price goods elsewhere, and then get my prices, and if you do not admit that you are saving money I will make you a present of the items referred to. This is no scheme, but simply a fact that I must give up this store-room about January 1st, and if you don't call to see me before purchasing elsewhere you will regret it as long as you live. So come and be convinced, as the proof of the pudding is in the eating.

We also have a large stock of FLOOR OILCLOTH, TABLE OILCLOTH, COMFORTS and BLANKETS to almost give away.

Captures an Eagle.

Mr. Urban V. Sargent, who lives five miles out on the Owenton pike, shot and wounded a big gray eagle, on Saturday morning last. The big bird, which weighs between 20 and 25 pounds, was only stunned and Mr. Sargent captured him and now has him in a cage. He measured 7 feet 14 inches from tip to tip of his wings. The bird is a rare and valuable one and is for sale at a reasonable price.

Badly Hurt.

Master Hord Hardin, son of the late Mr. David R. Hardin, of this city, was badly hurt about the face and eye, on Saturday at noon. He placed a large cannon firecracker under an empty tin can and fired it. When the cracker exploded a piece of the can struck him near the right eye, cut a gash some two inches long and barely missing the eye itself. The little fellow, who is only about ten years of age, was taken home and Dr. J. L. Price summoned, who attended to his injuries. He is doing as well as could be expected.

BRONCHITIS

Bronchitis is very prevalent. It generally begins with a common cold, attended with cough, hoarseness, soreness of the lungs, tightness of the chest and difficulty in breathing. If not attended to, it becomes dangerous—thousands die from bronchitis annually. Dr. John W. Bull's Cough Syrup is the best remedy for this disease; it relieves the cough at once, effects an easy expectoration, and cures in a few days.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup

Will promptly cure Bronchitis. Does not irritate and is pleasant to take. Doctors recommend it. Price 15 cents. At all druggists.

Has Left Us.

Mr. Edgar F. Suter, who has been an employee of our office for some five or six years, left Tuesday morning for Louisville to accept a situation in that city. We congratulate our young friend upon his good luck, and wish him all success in his new position. He is a clever and accommodating young man, and we will all miss him.
